Zevi comes downstairs in the morning. He hears Tatty talking on the phone. When Tatty finishes the call, he says, “Good Morning Zevi!”

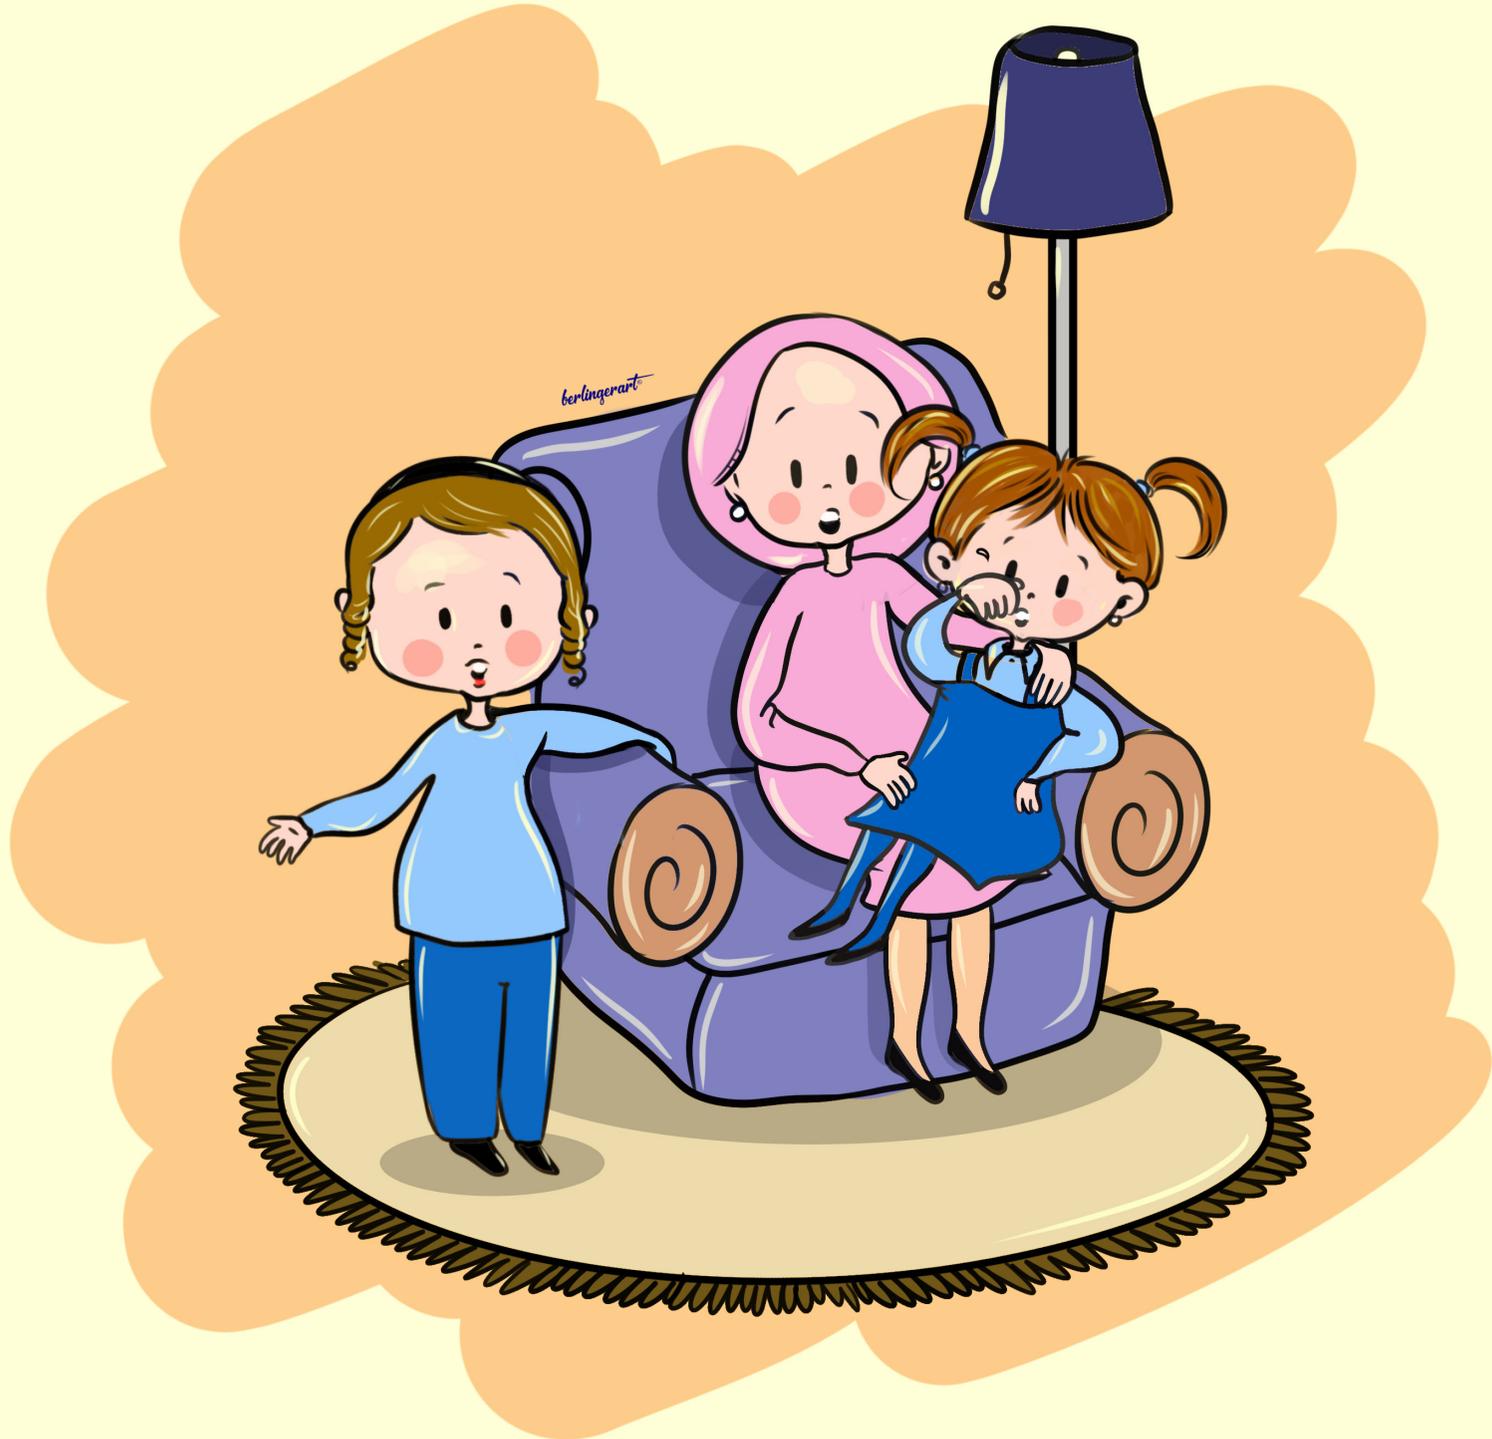

Zevi smiles, “Good Morning!” he answers.

Tatty then says, “I was just talking to Bubby because Zeidy is not feeling very well. He caught the Coronavirus.”

Tatty explains that Bubby and Zeidy must now go into Quarantine. This means that they must stay at home alone so that they do not cause the virus to spread further. Tatty explains that being in isolation – being alone - is not a punishment it is simply a way to help prevent more people from catching it.

Zeidy starts to feel worse and Bubby calls Hatzola. Zeidy goes to hospital.

Miri hears about Zeidy and she starts to cry. She feels scared and feels her heart beating very fast. “It’s okay,” says Mummy softly, “It’s normal to feel scared.”

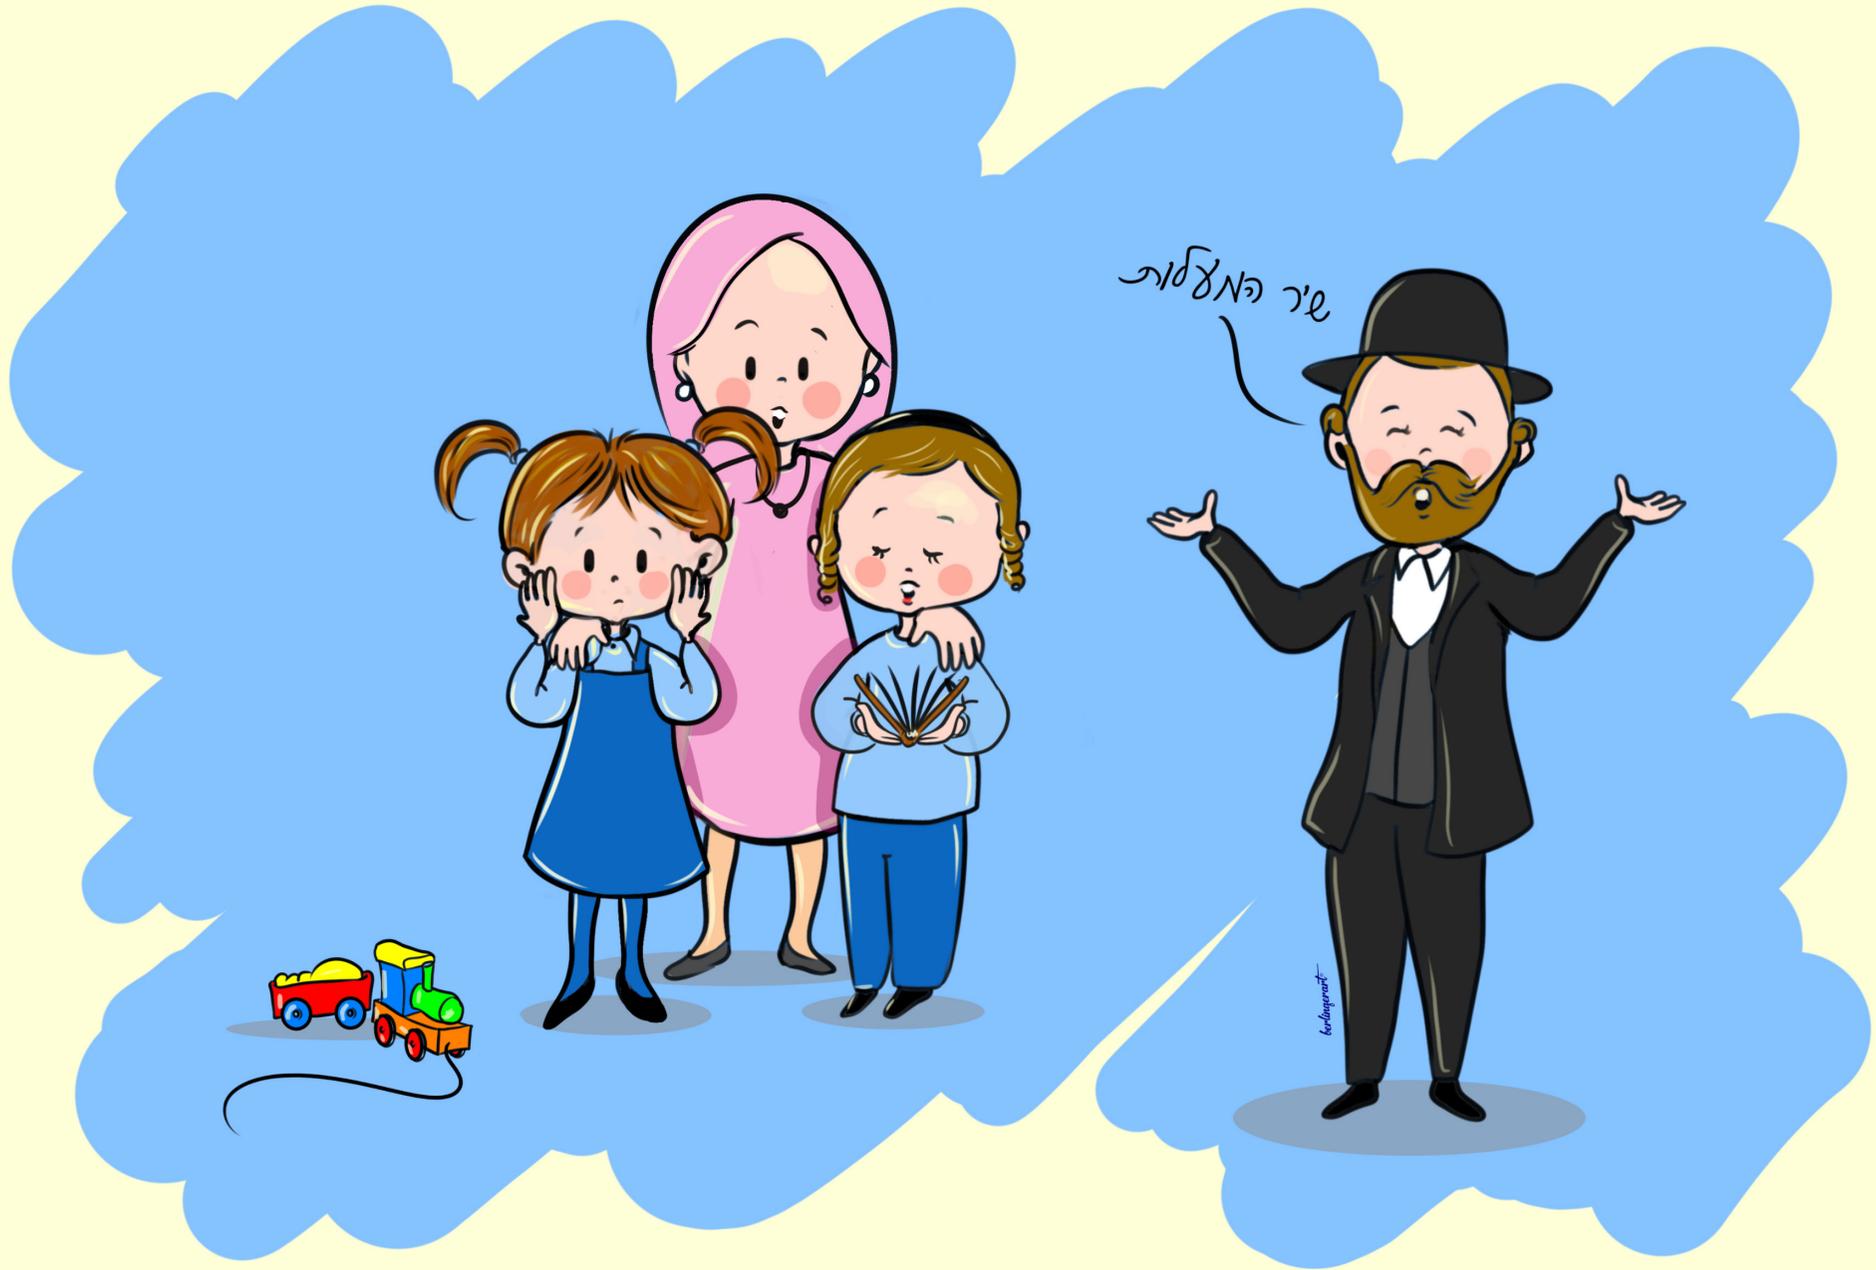

Zevi nods, “Me too, I am also worried that something will happen to our Zeidy.”

“Right,” explains Mummy, “When we feel scared we sometimes feel uncomfortable and sad. We may worry that something bad is going to happen.”

Tatty and Mummy explain to them that while some people can die from Coronavirus, most people recover and have a Refuah Shleimah – a complete recovery. Mummy says that we are lucky because we can daven and we know that whatever happens, everything that HaShem does is good.

Zevi and Miri feel better after talking to Tatty and Mummy. They now know that it is normal to feel scared and that we can always talk to Tatty and Mummy about the things that worry us. They also know that they can daven. Miri begins to write a beautiful Refuah Shleimah card for Zeidy.

Slowly Zeidy starts to regain his strength. A few weeks later Mummy shares the good news, Zeidy is coming back home!

Bubby tells them that Zeidy still needs to rest a lot. Mummy is happy and she tells Zevi and Miri, “We are very grateful to HaShem that Zeidy is home now.”

Zeidy thanks Zevi and Miri for davening that he should get better. “Whenever we daven,” says Zeidy, “whatever happens in the end, our tefillos are precious to HaShem.”

Zeidy then tells Miri that the best part of going to hospital was getting Miri’s card!
